Prof. P.L.O Lumumba, Director, Kenya School of Law

Prof. PLO Lumumba, Director, Kenya School of Law, was the Guest Speaker at the the International Day of non-violence celebrations held in the University of Nairobi.

The ceremony was held on Monday, October 3, 2016.

Prof. Lumumba, noted that the philosophy of Mahatma Gandhi of non-violence is applicable even today in a world full of violence. He cited the Rwandan genocide, South Sudan, Congo and Middle East among others as areas that have suffered genocide in different periods.

Lumumba called on the audience to observe the ideals of Gandhi such as humility, truth, integrity, righteousness, peace and non violence.
